

Beatrice Squire, FEW Foundation Advisory Council

Beatrice Squire, FEW Foundation Advisory Council member has extensive skills and knowledge adjudicating claims, writing regulations, and serving as ombudsman for the Social Security Administration, Office of Disability and Adjudication Review. She received her Bachelor degree with honors from Virginia Union University and Master's degree from Johns Hopkins University.

Beatrice brings a wide range of experience to the Foundation, such as an extensive background in presenting workshops to varied groups and ages, and excellent communication skills. She has received numerous awards; first place honors at the highest levels in speaking competitions held by Toastmasters International and the non-fiction writing category, International Training in Communication.

She is a Life member of FEW and served as national vice parliamentarian for five years. She was president of the Northern Virginia chapter of FEW. She held distinguished positions in Toastmasters International, International Training in Communication, Business and Professional Women, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and National Association of Parliamentarians. She enjoys reading, attending the theatre and visiting art galleries and exhibits; traveling and unusual vacations.