

Jean Christiansen served as National President of Federally Employed Women from 1990 to 1992. Prior to that Jean served as Executive Vice President, Vice President for Long Range Planning and National Secretary.

Jean began her career with the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service in 1976 as a Secretary in Dallas, Texas. Jean moved to Washington DC in 1990 and held a number of positions in that location. She was promoted to the position of Officer in Charge in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, in 1994, and later served in the same position in Vienna, Austria. In 1998, Jean became the District Director in Bangkok, Thailand, and served in that position until she retired in 2005.

Jean has four grown children and six grandchildren.