

Jeraldine (Jeri) retired from the federal government with over 38 years of dedicated service. Over her 38 year career she served as a Personnel Specialist, Equal Employment Opportunity Counselor, Program Manager, Master Training Instructor, Training Manager, Air Force Strategist, Registrar, at the USAF School of Aerospace Medicine, and Chief, Training Manager for Senior Executive Service members, and her last position prior to retirement was Chief, Force Support Readiness Training.

As a Diamond Lifetime Member of Federal Employed Women (FEW), Jeri held such positions as Chapter President, Regional Awards Chair, National Chair for Persons with Disabilities, and currently, National Diversity Vice President. She obtained her Bachelors of Science degree in Management at Jackson State University, and later obtained two Master of Arts degrees in Computer Resources and Information Systems and Procurement and Acquisition Management from Webster University.